New York, NY (July 21, 2021): CF Finance Acquisition Corp. III (Nasdaq: CFAC) (“CF III”), a special purpose acquisition company sponsored by Cantor Fitzgerald, today announced that the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) has declared effective its registration statement on Form S-4 in connection with its previously announced business combination with AEye, Inc. The declaration of effectiveness by the SEC and the filing of the definitive proxy statement is an important step in AEye becoming a publicly traded company, with the goal of being listed on the Nasdaq under the symbol “LIDR” at the close of the transaction.

As previously announced, the business combination is expected to deliver up to $455 million of gross proceeds to AEye, including up to $230 million of cash held in CF III’s trust account and up to $225 million from a fully committed PIPE anchored by strategic and institutional investors.

CF III will hold a Special Meeting of Stockholders at 9:30 a.m. Eastern time on August 12, 2021 to approve, among other things, the previously announced business combination with AEye. Shareholders of record at the close of business on July 12, 2021 will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting. The meeting will be held virtually over the internet by means of a live audio webcast. Shareholders will be able to attend, vote their shares and submit questions during the Special Meeting via a live webcast available at www.cstproxy.com/cffinanceacquisitioncorp3iii/sm2021.

At the closing, current AEye shareholders will roll their existing equity holdings into the post-business combination company. The transaction, which has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of both CF III and AEye, is expected to close in the third quarter of 2021, subject to regulatory and stockholder approvals, and other customary closing conditions.
